

Breast Cancer and the Estrogen Connection

Environmental Estrogens in COSMETICS and personal care products market guide:

What you can do now

Learn about product ingredients

Use the Environmental Working Group's Database to

Look Up ingredients in products you use <http://cosmeticdatabase.com/>

Watch videos on BCERF website

<http://envirocancer.cornell.edu/research/endocrine/videos>

Read products labels and

Make choices to Avoid these Environmental Estrogens:

Parabens:

Butylparaben, Ethylparaben, Isobutylparaben, Methylparaben,
Propylparaben

Placental Extracts

UV Screens:

Benzophenone-1 or -2, Homosalate, Octinoxate, Oxybenzone,
Sulisobenzone

Videos also on YouTube <http://www.youtube.com>

Use the search word "enviroestrogen"

Share with your friends and family

More information at <http://envirocancer.cornell.edu/default.cfm>

Program on Breast Cancer and Environmental risk factors (BCERF)

Cornell University Sprecher Institute for Comparative Cancer Research, Ithaca, NY 14853

Telephone: 607 254 2893 breastcancer@cornell.edu